Corps names Motz new Chief of Internal Review

HUNTINGTON, WV... The Huntington District of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers has selected Tina Motz, CPA, as chief of its Internal Review office.

As Chief of the Internal Review Office, Motz is responsible for advising the commander and providing an independent capability for appraising and monitoring District activities and related internal controls, and ensuring preservation and proper use of federal resources.

Prior to her selection as Chief of Internal Review, Motz worked as an accountant in the Resource Management Office for the Huntington District. Before joining the Corps, Motz worked as a Certified Public Accountant with Trainer, Wright & Paterno of Huntington, W.Va.

A native of Lavalette, W.Va., Motz graduated from Marshall University with a bachelor's degree majoring in accounting and management, and passed the CPA exam in 2002. Throughout her six-year career with the Corps, she has received numerous awards and recognitions. Motz recently served as the Huntington District coordinator for the 2008 Combined Federal Campaign.
